Lot 2 Whorouly Road, Whorouly

Fertile Vacant Farmland

Quality Ovens River flats, approximately 30.35 hectares (75 acres) in size with very good shade trees and good water. A 72 mega litre irrigation licence from a dragline hole offers the opportunity to intensively farm the property. 2 stock troughs (one not currently connected) and a rainwater tank. A section of the property is planted to olive and persimmon trees, one paddock recently had lime applied and was re-sown with an annual pasture mix, there is underground irrigation lines in this section with the balance of the land used for grazing. Supered last year and a contractor employed for weed control. Fertile land that is well suited to cropping or a range of horticultural pursuits, a great addition to an existing farm.
